Dr. Vinod Sahney wins Frank and Lillian Gilbreth Award from the Society for Health Systems

The Society for Health Systems has named Dr. Vinod Sahney as the recipient of their prestigious lifetime achievement distinction, the Frank and Lillian Gilbreth Award, in recognition of his significant contribution and dedication to the field of health care.

After receiving his PhD from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Dr. Sahney began working at Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan. During his time as an industrial engineering faculty member, he focused on healthcare systems. After teaching, he worked at Henry Ford Health System, where he was eventually promoted to vice president. In the past, he has served as president of the Society for Health Systems and made significant contributions to the Institute for Healthcare Improvement. He is one of a select few elected to both the Institute of Medicine and the National Academy of Engineering. More recently, he has served as senior vice president and chief strategy officer for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts.
